THE N°. 31.

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, April 15, 1746.

VIENNA, October 30, O. S.

A Courier, who Yeſterday arrived here from Italy, brings Advice, that there has been a very ſharp Action between the combin'd Troops of the Empreſs and the King of Sardinia, and the Spaniards who remained at Aleſſandria, to the Diſadvantage of the latter; and great Encomiums are made, of the Conduct which Prince Lichtenſtein obſerved on this Occaſion.

Peterſburg, Decem. 24. We have received the diſagreeable News, that the City of Aſtracan has been almoſt entirely ruined by a Fire that broke out there; and that the Merchandizes loſt on this Occaſion are computed to be worth 150,000 Rubles. The Engliſh Merchants loſt nothing by this melancholy Accident, their Warehouſes being without the Gates of the City.

Turin, October 16. This Court having ordered a ſmall Body of Troops near Exilles, to cover that Fort, and to prevent the Siege of it, M. de Lautrec, the French General was retired; the Cannon had been ſent back to Biançon, and had actually paſſed Mount Genevre. M. de Roſſi, who commanded the Piedmonteſe Battalions, in order to obſerve M. de Lautrec, followed him at a Diſtance, and had taken Poſt near Feneſtrelles, within a very little Diſtance of the French Camp at Seſtrieres. On the 11th Inſtant M. de Roſſi was attacked by near 10,000 Men, in three Columns; tho' he ſtood his Ground ſome Hours againſt the Body he had in Front, yet his Militia and Vaudois having given Way, he was ſoon ſurrounded, and his regular Troops put to Flight. General de Roſſi himſelf was taken Priſoner, together with the Colonel of the Regiment of Nice, and 18 of his Officers. The Loſs amounts to about 500 Men, the reſt ſaved themſelves under the Cannon of Feneſtrelles.

Paris, Nov. 26. The Abbe de la Ville, on his Return hither, has been highly careſſed by the Miniſtry; which, however has nothing in it ſo ſingular as that he ſhould be feaſted, as he was the 15th of this Month, in a moſt ſuperb Manner, by M. Van Hoey, the Dutch Ambaſſador. We have Advice that the Scotch Regiment, under the Command of the Lord John Drummond, has been twice embarked for Scotland, and twice at Sea; but thought fit to return, once on account of bad Weather, and once on account of the Engliſh Men of War.

Milan, Dec. 11. On receiving Advice that the Infant Don Philip was arrived at Pavia, at the Head of a powerful Army, with a Deſign to enter the Milaneſe, the Deputies of this Town went out Yeſterday in order to tender their Submiſſion to his Royal Highneſs, and to pay him Homage.

The General Count de Gages has poſſeſſed himſelf of diverſe Poſts along the Teſſin, in order to obſtruct the March of the Prince of Lichtenſtein; who is thereby obliged to take a Circuit, and to march round by the way of Seſto and the great Lake; and by that Road to retire into the Mantuan, or the Cremoneſe.

Paris, Dec. 12. Things in Italy ſtill continue to go as well as we can wiſh; the Allies have made themſelves Maſters of Chivas, which is but a few Leagues from Turin; into the Neighbourhood of which City the King of Sardinia has retired with his Army. That Prince, inſtead of liſtening to the Propoſals lately made him, has given out Commiſſions for raiſing ſeveral new Regiments; and having deſired to borrow a certain Sum of Money, on Security in Hand, at Geneva, ſome private Perſons there have actually lent him double the Sum, and refuſed any Security at all.

Dec. 24. Beſides the 15000 Troops that are to embark at Dunkirk, we reckon 2000 Volantiers that intend to go over with them to England. The Squadron deſtin'd to convoy their Embarkation, is already ſailed from Breſt, but we don't know how many Ships it conſiſts of. A Director and a Comptroller of the Poſts ſet out the 22d for Dunkirk, in order to ſtation Pacquet Boats there, that we may have a regular Correſpondence between the Flemiſh and Engliſh Coaſts, as ſoon as the King's Troops ſhall have croſſed the Seas. (Utrecht Gazette.)

Dunkirk, Dec. 25. Several Men of War are arrived here, in order to ſerve as Convoy to the Veſſels that are to tranſport to England the 15 or 20,000 Men, deſtin'd to ſecond the Chevalier's eldeſt Son. (Leyden Gazette.)

Rome, Nov. 24, O. S. The 17th Inſtant being the firſt Day of Advent, the Hoſt was expoſed to public View in the Engliſh Church dedicated to St. Thomas Becket, and public Prayers were ordered there, for imploring the Bleſſing of Heaven on the Arms of the Chevalier de St. George's eldeſt Son.

DUBLIN, November 12.

The following is Part of the Addreſs of the Governor, the High Sheriff, Clergy, &c. of the County of Antrim, both of the eſtabliſhed Church and Proteſtant Diſſenters.

'And we beg Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, humbly to 'repreſent to your Majeſty, that ſuch of us as are Lay-men, e-'mulating the Glory of our Anceſtors, who bravely defended 'their Country againſt Popery and arbitrary Power, have en-'tered into a ſolemn Engagement, in which we are confident 'the reſt of your Proteſtant Subjects in this County, who are fit 'to bear Arms, amounting to 20,000 and upwards, will unani-'mouſly concur; that if your Majeſty, at any Time, during 'this unnatural Rebellion, have Occaſion for more Forces than 'can otherwiſe be readily had, any Number, Share, or Por-'tion of us, that your Majeſty ſhall think fit to require, will

'enliſt

'enlist as Volunteers in your Service, to be employed against 'the Rebels, or their Assistants, in any Part of Great-Britain or 'Ireland, until the Rebellion be suppressed.'

Edinburgh, Dec. 26. We are well assured that the Highland Army at Perth is not near so formidable as has been represented. They have stopped all Passes to prevent Desertion, and are fortifying the South Inch at Perth, by bringing the River to surround it.

From the Western Parts it is assured, That a noble Spirit prevails, and the whole Country is rising with a Resolution to fight wherever there be Occasion; they have already been furnished with several thousand stand of Arms.

The Pretender, in a Council of War held lately with his chief Officers, declared he thought himself very ill used by many in Great-Britain, having, under their Hands, repeated Promises of their Assistance upon his Arrival, with Purse and Person, in Behalf of his Cause; the Disappointment of which occasioned him to express himself with great Warmth, in being so much deceived. On which Occasion the Duke of Perth, and some others, said, that they were much worse used in their Undertakings, having had Assurances from France of being aided with 10,000 Men, and by Spain with 6000; which Promises engaged him, and many others, in the present Undertaking, to the Hazard not only of their Lives, but the Ruin of their Families for ever.

LONDON.

Nov. 16. Early on Saturday one Gordon, a Romish Priest, was taken out of his Bed, at his Lodgings in East-street, Red Lion Square: a great many Papers were found on his Table, and in his Room, by which it appears, that many Thousands of Pounds have been transmitted through his Hands to the Rebels; and many Persons discovered, who have been concerned in the infamous Contribution. He was examined several Hours before the Right Hon. the Earl of Harrington, and then committed into the Custody of one of his Majesty's Messengers.

Last Week Count Maurice of Nassau, accompanied by Field Marshal Wade, and a great Number of other Officers, reviewed the King's Forces now encamped on the Town-Moor of Newcastle, where the Army was drawn up in order of Battle, consisting of two grand Lines, each three Men deep, and near two Miles long; with their Officers standing at the Head of each Regiment, and the Train properly disposed. The whole made the most grand and delightful Appearance that the Eyes of a true Englishman and faithful Subject could behold, in the present Conjuncture.

Nov. 29. Last Wednesday Mr. Thomas Ashburnham, of Fleet-street, was married to an agreeable young Woman of 23 Years of Age; it is remarkable that she is his ninth Wife, and he is in the 91st Year of his Age.

The Ludlow Castle Man of War is arrived in Yarmouth Road from Scotland, having on board 50 of the Rebels, whom he decoyed there by hoisting French Colours.

Yesterday, as the Post was coming out of Dover, two of his Majesty's Ships were coming in with a French Privateer Snow.

Dec. 28. Sunday Night last an Information was given to the Magistrates of the Borough, that several distempered Cows were secreted by some Butchers in the Borough, in their Slaughter Houses; and upon Examination, sixteen were found, which were immediately killed, and buried in St. George's Fields. At the same Time they examined their Houses, and found several Quarters of distemper'd Beef concealed in their Chambers, which was seized and burnt. This base Practice so enraged the Populace, that they broke the Windows, and did other considerable Damage to the Houses.

The Sentence of the Court Martial upon Capt. John Amhurst, late Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Rupert, is, That for the Failure of his Duty, the Court are of Opinion he falls under Part of the 12th Article of War, contained in an Act of Parliament in the 13th Year of King George II. But in regard he hath, before and since the Engagement, born the Character of an experienced and diligent Officer, and that his failing in Duty seems to have been a Mistake in Judgment, the Court do adjudge him to be cashier'd and incapable of serving as an Officer in his Majesty's Navy, during Pleasure; and he is hereby mulcted one Year's Pay, as Captain of the Rupert, to the Use of his Majesty's Chest at Chatham. That the Marshal do discharge him out of Custody; and he was discharged accordingly.

Extract of a Letter from a Surgeon in the Duke's Army, dated December 21, from Penrith.

"In the late Skirmish at Clifton, the Rebels took all possible Advantage, and got behind stone Walls, Hedges, and some of them into Houses, when our Troops began to attack them; notwithstanding which, our Troops push'd them with such Intrepidity, that in less than an Hour and a half they quitted the Field, and the Town; however, they made a shift to carry off all their Dead, except five Men, which they left in the Field. It seems they thought by this Means to conceal their Loss; for there have been upwards of 40 of their Dead found in Lowther River, which was but a small Distance from the place of Action; in which we lost only ten Men killed, viz. six of Bland's, three of Cobham's, and one of Kerr's; and 21 wounded, besides Col. Honeywood who is very much wounded in the Head, and Capt. East a large Wound in his Neck; and a Corner and a Volunteer almost cut to pieces.

On the Rebels Side, Capt. Hamilton is the only Person of Note, that we know of, that fell; he was a bold desperate Fellow, and commanded the Hussars; but one of the Duke's Hussars proved the better Man, and cut him down, tho' not without uncommon Resistance.

We have likewise taken one of their Hussars, who was brought here by one of Oglethorpe's Rangers; besides about 70 private Men, taken by the country People."

St. James's, Dec. 28. The following Association has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Falmouth, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting; Which Association his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

ASSOCIATION.

Cornwall. WHereas the Son of a popish and abjur'd Pretender, having actually set up his Standard, audaciously carries on an horrid and unnatural Rebellion, in Conjunction with wicked, ill-designing, and traiterous Persons, and supported by France, Spain, and Rome, the implacable Enemies to our Religion and Country, daringly avows his Intentions to dethrone our most gracious and only lawful Sovereign King GEORGE, subvert our Religion and Liberties, and entail Slavery and Popery on us and our Posterity; we, whose Names are hereunto subscribed, in Abhorrence of such detested Schemes and Attempts, do hereby voluntarily engage ourselves, in the Bond of one loyal Society, and do solemnly declare, that we will (when called upon) be ready to appear, armed in the best Manner we can, under the Command of the Right Hon. Hugh Lord Viscount Falmouth, (empowered by his Majesty to command and form into Companies such Persons as are willing to associate themselves,) or under some other Officer or Officers commissioned by him, in order to defend his Majesty's sacred Person and Government, preserve the Peace of this our County, our Religion, our Properties, and every Thing that is dear to us as Englishmen, and at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, oppose all Invaders, Rebels and Traytors whatsoever.

The

The above Association was signed by six thousand three hundred eighty-seven Persons.

Newport, Rhode-Island, March 21.

Last Wednesday arrived here the Brigt. Defiance, a Privateer of this Place, commanded by Capt. John Dennis, who, on his Cruize the 30th of January last, took a French Ship of 20 Guns, and 82 Men, bound from Port Lewis to Leoganne, on Hispaniola, for Convoy: This Ship was then in Company with two other Vessels of Force, which were all smartly engaged together for some Time; but she being the largest, Capt. Dennis made a bold Attempt, and boarded her, which the other two observing, soon made off, and escaped. Capt. Dennis had 15 Men killed, and 15 wounded; seven of those killed were white Men, among whom is Mr. Calder, the Captain's Quarter-Master, the other eight are Blacks: The wounded Men are all in a likely Way to do well: The Enemy had 20 Men killed, and as many wounded. The greatest Loss was occasioned by the accidental firing of some large Quantities of Powder, which the Frenchmen had set ready for their Use in the Cabbin or Steerage, just as they had struck; and by the splitting of a Swivel Gun on board the Privateer, which killed 4 or 5 Men, and wounded more. Her Cargo is said to consist of 500 Hogsheads of Sugar, 57 Hogsheads of Indigo, with other valuable Effects. She was parted with 4 Days ago, and is hourly expected in here. [We hear this Prize is since arrived safe.]

It deserves to be observed by those whom it may concern, that in the whole Course of the War, our Privateers have suffered more from their own Guns than the Enemies, Accidents excepted.

BOSTON, March 24.

The Beginning of last Week arrived at Rhode Island from Antigua, in 5 Weeks, Capt. Erskine, in a Sloop belonging to this Town, who came hither by Land Yesterday, and informs, That in November last, being bound from Philadelphia to Louisburgh with Provisions, &c. off of the Isle of Sables, he met with such high Gales of Wind and severe Weather, that he was obliged to stand away for Antigua.—— That the Kinsale Man of War, that came from England, Convoy to the Vessels bound to Louisburgh the last Fall, with one of the Store Ships, meeting with bad Weather, were blown off the Coast and got to Antigua very much shattered. The Kinsale was obliged to throw all her upper Deck Guns overboard, &c. but was refitted and sail'd again.—That Admiral Townshend with 9 or 10 of the largest Men of War, was sail'd from Antigua, but upon what Design was not certainly known, he refusing to take any Merchant Ships under his Convoy: But as the Kinsale, with Money and Stores on board for Louisburgh, sail'd with him, it was generally thought he was bound for that Place. That the Store-Ship for Louisburgh was refitting, and when ready, was to sail under Convoy of the Comet Bomb.—We hear likewise, that Capt. Mills of this Town, who was taken by the French and carried into Martineco, is come Passenger in Capt. Erskine, and informs, That the French have a great Number of Privateers cruising from Martineco; and that while he was there, which was not a Fortnight, 13 English Vessels were taken and brought in.

ANNAPOLIS.

A few Days ago arrived in Rappahannock River, in Virginia, the Ship ——, Capt. Lee, from London, which Place he left the latter End of January, and the Downs sometime in February. A Gentleman, who saw Capt. Lee, informs us he has brought Advice, That a Person now in the Tower, who was suspected to be the Pretender's second Son, is proved to be so, by the Testimony of a Nobleman, and the Oath of Alderman Barber's Son, who personally knew him: That it was with Difficulty, that the Guards who conveyed him to the Tower, could preserve him, and the Officers taken with him, from being torn in pieces by the enraged Populace. That the French King has demanded him; but on being refused, a Stop is put to the Cartel. —— That the Pretender's eldest Son in Scotland, with his rebellious Rabble, were driven back into the Highlands; and calling at Glasgow in their Way, had demanded of that City a Contribution of 60,000*l*. That Scotland is in a manner encompassed with English Men of War, which renders his Escape almost impracticable: Whilst our Land Forces were in eager Pursuit of him, and of consequence daily straitening his Quarters. —— That a great Number of Dutch Vessels are detained by the French, in the Ports of that Kingdom; and that many of the English Men of War are narrowly watching their Motions.

Capt. Lee has brought in a great many Goods for Virginia and Maryland; and further informs, that the Reports which have been so industriously spread, to the Prejudice of Mr. Hyde's Character, are altogether false, and without Foundation: That Capt. Allingham, in a Ship for Patuxent, and Capt. Biggs, in a large India Man for Patapsco, both in that Gentleman's Employ, were soon to sail for this Province. Capt. Addison was ready to sail for Potomack.

Custom House, ANNAPOLIS, Cleared,
Ship Italian Merchant, Alexander Reid, for London.

¶ The Letter signed Q. B. relating to the Scheme for an Inspecting Law (inserted in Number 49 of this Paper), not being received in time, must be postponed 'til next Week.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Anne-Arundel County.

WHEREAS it has been a Custom for some Time past, with some Clergymen of this County to receive Tobacco of their Parishioners for their 40 per Poll, without the knowledge or consent of the Sheriff of the County, which has occasioned great confusion and uneasiness between the Sheriff and People, and renders the Pay of the public Dues very difficult; And whereas, I am informed that the like Practice is now carrying on by the said Clergymen. These are therefore to request the Inhabitants of the County, that in order to avoid any future confusion and uneasiness, to forbear the like Practice; for that no such Payment will be allowed them in Account with WILLIAM THORNTON, Sheriff.

ALL Persons who have had any Dealings with the Subscriber, are desired to come forthwith and settle their Accounts, and pay the same, or give their Notes.
